

“Think”

*Think of what you can do.
Think of what you will say.
Think of the people who love you.
Think of the decisions you will make.
You're special to people here.
You're special in every way.
People need your smile,
To greet you every day.
You have purpose here,
There are things you need to do.
So think of how important you are,
When things all seem doomed.
Live each day to the fullest,
And never back down.
Live to see your future grow.
Think of who you will become now.*
